1 Of the thousands of outstanding rarities I have offered in my catalogs the past 22 years, this is one of my favorites. Incredible blacksmith made iron horse bit, each side being a nicely detailed 9" coffin hilt Bowie knife with a 5½" clip point blade. Wonderful attention to detail. The outer sides of both the cutting & false edges are beveled. Coffin hilts are overlaid with finely cut & filed brass scales, secured with iron rivets. Overall superb condition, light pitting to iron surfaces as expected. Mid 19th century. 6,750.

2 Magnificent 26½" Great Lakes ceremonial ball headed war club circa 1860's-80's. Carved otter 4" long crawls along top. Dark contrasting section is fully file burned along one side. Thin incised grooves colored mainly in lime green with a bit of yellow/red. Wonderful condition. Provenance includes three top dealers in fine Indian artifacts. 8,500.

3 Spectacular 12½" mechanical doll. Long gray cloth dress & flat 'straw' hat are typical suffragette garb. She wears a black/wht sash imprinted "VOTES FOR WOMEN". Wood hands/feet, molded composition head & hat. Her chest has a bellows (like a squeak toy), & when squeezed she bangs cymbals to drum up support. Of course it has minor light wear & soiling, but condition basically superb. 6,750.

4 Very rare 6" Liverpool creamware tankard "O H Perry Esq - Hero of the Lake - We Have Met the Enemy and They are Ours". Appearance is superb, but it has had an excellent repair to a long meandering crack. You won't see it unless you know what you are looking for - my restorer is GOOD. Arman #P25, previously thought unique. 3,500.

5 Considered by many collectors to be the best of all matchsafes. Pushing the latch opens the match compartment & also a concealed spring activated lid which opens to a mechanical clockwork scene of a nude couple having sex. She reclines on a large chair, he kneels in front of her on a small stool & thrusts back & forth into her. A small dog jumps below. Floor & furniture a brass color, figures are copper, dog is silver as is the large mirror at right. Closing the lid rewinds the mechanism. See Sanders pg. 89, where this is listed at $7,500-9,250, but that seems excessive to me. 6,250.

6 Superb large 3" silver Indian peace medal, impressed around rim "Indian Treaty No. 5 - 1875". Portrait Queen Victoria, reverse scene of Albert Edward, the Prince of Wales, shaking hands with Indian chief. Tomahawk embedded in ground, sunrise on horizon, Indian village to rear. Outstanding XF-AU condition, original heavy ring at top, couple minor rim dings as expected for awarded medals. Much rarer than the Lincoln, Johnson or Grant Presidential peace medals of the same period. 7,750.

7 Previously unknown & obviously unique large Lincoln - Johnson banner, the type that might have flown on a ships mast. 18' long & 32" high at the left, tapering to 16" on the right. Left end with canvas hoist, sewn grommets. The red/white striped background is a thin lightweight woolen homespun & has scattered small holes & tears. The large 12" high letters are bright blue glazed cotton, the same material typically used in campaign flags of the period. Because the lettering is a much sturdier fabric, it is in superb condition. Overall condition fine plus. 17,000.

8 Exceedingly rare child's percussion fowler, French, circa 1840's. Only 30" long with an 18½" half round, half octagon barrel. Breech, lock, hammer, trigger guard & tang with fancy engraving. Beautifully figured graining on the carved stock. Very high relief carved face with inset ivory & horn eyes. Leaf carved cheekpiece, floral carved & checkered grip. Original steel ramrod. High quality gun in lovely condition. Note that this is not a youths or ladies gun, but is for a small child perhaps 5 - 7 years old. Reduced size youth/ladies guns are scarce but do come on the market. They are much larger than this piece. One of my best friends, who is a high level antique arms dealer, said that in 35 years he has only seen two guns actually made for small children. A superb rarity, & an absolutely charming antique, even if you don't collect guns! 3,950.

9 Quarter plate California gold rush daguerreotype showing 4 men working beneath a long divided sluice on raised pylons. Two have shovels, one a pick & the fourth a pan filled with gold tinted nuggets. Water wheel & some sort of crusher at top of image. Rocker box on ground beside the man with pan. Three of the men's shirts are lightly tinted red. Very clear image but moderately solarized, minor bit of tarnish on outer edges. This would be a $30,000 image but for the solarization. 18,500.

10 An exceptional document, being the personal Nazi identification paper of Rudolf Hess in the early days of Hitlers rise to power. Heading at top reads simply "Adolf Hitler - Munich - Schellingstrasse 50". The text says that "Mr Rudolf Hess is in my employ as private secretary" & is dated below Munich Aug 13 1927, & boldly signed in ink by Hitler. This was only a couple of years after Hitlers release from prison & the lifting of the ban on his speaking, but he had used the time well to increase his personal stature to the point where a letter such as this would keep the authorities from interfering with Hess. On a unique laminated waxed paper to make it more sturdy when carried by Hess. Excellent condition, minor loss of waxed laminate at corners. 3,950.

11 A great banner for one of the most famous units of the Civil War. "Grand Reunion - Battle at Gettysburg - 20th Maine Infantry - Gen Joshua Chamberlain - Little Round Top - Oct 3 1889." Lettering in white & gold, red corps badges upper corners, large multicolor scene of Little Round Top in shield at center, all on black background. Hand painted on canvas or heavy sail cloth. 27 X 42 including 3" gold fringe. Original hanging bar with brass finials. Excellent condition. A great piece of Americana! 9,750.

12 Unique original artwork in crayon, ink & gouache. British diplomat in jeep labeled "The Mandate" delivers weapons and explosives to Arab terrorist wearing Nazi swastika medal. Ground littered with dead Jews & damaged Torah. At right an American diplomat stands with barrel of Arab oil as he tramples Truman's statement about admitting Jews to Palestine. Vulture on tree with "Embargo" sign, reference to ban on sale of arms to the Jews. Signed "M Jubovsky Feb 16 1948". 19 X 26 (sight), triple matted & framed 26 X 32, excellent. 1,850.

13 Spectacular Buffalo Bill poster in large 3 sheet size 38 X 81. "Johnny Baker - The Expert Marksman", standing portrait & two inset views of his upside down shooting. By Strobridge 1908. Superb overall condition, slightest wear at edges & joint seams, on best quality paper faced linen. 6,500.

14 (see photo of medal on previous page) Significant Confederate broadside & medal for the Defense of Richmond 1863. Broadside 9½ X 12 issued by Mayor Joseph Mayo June 23 1863 "Fellow Citizens - To Arms... organize Companies for the defence of the City against immediate attack by the enemy...they are approaching...Remember New Orleans - Richmond is now in your hands. Let it not fall under the rule of another Butler..." Large bold pencil signature/ inscription below "E R Archer, Capt Co D, Tredegar Batn". Excellent condition with light toning & offset. Accompanied by Archers hand engraved silver medal on blue neck ribbon, medal reads "Company D Tredegar Battalion". 1½" in superb condition. The Battalion was originally formed in April 1861 with four companies of 90 men each, all employees of the famous Tredegar Iron Works. At that time Archer was the original 1st Lt of Co D, but had risen to captain by 1863. 8,250.

15 Exceedingly rare poster 18 X 24, black on beige paper, Shoeless Joe Jackson & his Gang against the Black Crows, Crosley Field Cincinnati. Standing drawing of Jackson swinging "Black Betsy", large circular portrait at right. Great ad at bottom "Drink Coca Cola at Devines Drug Store". Generally excellent condition, bit of toning at extreme edges. Folded into quarters, probably as originally issued, with minor wear at folds. On the best quality paper faced linen. 8,500.

16 One of the rarest Zachary Taylor clothing buttons, Albert 226A, Taylor standing beside horse, "Rough & Ready". Nice. 425.

17 A real numismatic rarity. Hard times token for Walsh's General Store, Lansingburgh NY (plow reverse, HT 216, Low 99) struck 70% off center on both sides. VF. Major errors in the HTT series are hardly ever seen. 525.
